In every book we have the point of view from a dragon, not that I'm complaining, dragons are amazing. But wouldn't it be cool if we have a POV from a scavenger (human)? We'd finally know what they think about dragons, and maybe an animus can enchant a scavenger to know the dragon language. I would love for the 2nd tribe of the new continent to be a "wyrm"; a dragon with no wings that can fly. Maybe even a dragon that shoots lightning and.. stuff. I, and I'm sure many others would love to see what the history was like before and during the Scorching, when scavengers ruled Pyrrhia. Tell me what you think about these ideas.

My idea is that it will be focused on the lost continent, and maybe have POVs from the different young characters over their, but maybe or or two POVs from the characters exploring the continent.

Most likely the next books will be SilkWings, HiveWings, and LeafWings, judging from how Tui confirmed that Cricket is the main charatcher for the next book.

why are uppercase and lowercase letters a thing? why don't we just write in all caps or all lc.? it's basically just western languages that do this? is this another relic of our eurocentric mentality and world? if so, i reject this way of life

analyzingbee499

I think not in books 11 to 15 but in her own book like Legends Of Dark Stalker. We should have Tundras story. She should end up being half Nightwing or secretly an animus. Or be from a crazy poor family or have some amazing back story. It would be so new because all the other books were with younger dragons. We could even include her childhood and Winter and Icicle and Hailstorms childhood.

Auklet and Tamarin should get together. Also, I feel like it should be written from a pov that is a thousand years later. Maybe the dragonet of relation to tamarin(Rainwing choice), Starflights descendant(Nightwing choice), Or whatever. But I feel like it should be a clear story of how life carried on, and the important dragons a thousand years later. I feel like it makes it more mysterious and interesting to have hybrids of like icewings and silkwings, or seawings and silkwimgs. It should be something about how life progressed. or maybe it should be about deathbringer! it should progress towards deathbringers dragonets.
